1. About The KVNA:

Nestled in the heart of southwestern Kelowna, we are a non-profit organization dedicated to enriching the lives of our residents and their families through various community events, charitable activities, and fun gatherings. Our mission is to build a tight-knit community that supports each other and contributes positively to our community and city.

Founded over 25 years ago by a coalition of residents and business leaders, the Kettle Valley Neighbourhood Association has become the lifeblood of our community. As a non-profit, we are committed to fostering connections and enhancing the vibrant spirit of Kettle Valley. Every event we host and a deep belief in community power drive every initiative we spearhead—because it's not just where we live; it's our home.

2. Event Overview Date & Time:

Join us as we mark the 23rd anniversary of the Kettle Valley Garage Sale and BNA Burger Flea Market—a cornerstone event in Kelowna's calendar.

This event is more than a sale; it's where the community meets. Over 200 households will open their garages, and more than 20 talented local artists and artisans will display their crafts and creations, enriching the experience alongside BNA Burger.

Morning Event:

Kettle Valley Community Garage Sale. Start your day early at the Kettle Valley Garage Sale on Saturday, May 25, from 8 AM to 12 PM. Celebrating its 26th year, this event features over 200 homes with various items for sale, including vehicles, furniture, toys, clothing, and home decor. It's a community staple attracting Kettle Valley bargain hunters and treasure seekers. Register today and receive a coupon for two free BNA Burger Smash burgers!

Afternoon Event:

BNA Burger Flea Market. Join us on Saturday, May 25, from 11 AM to 3 PM at the inaugural BNA Burger Flea Market. Located at Providence Park, this event starts during the garage sale and continues, offering a seamless transition from bargain shopping to festive fun. Register your home for the garage sale and receive a coupon for two delicious BNA burgers in your registration package!
